

Art Competition

Calling all artists with disability

Victorian Public Sector Commission is developing a disability employment action plan to enhance employment of people with disability in the Victorian public sector. You are invited to create an original artwork to feature on the plan.

The art theme is "a fully inclusive workplace"

The winning artist will receive $5000 and their art will feature as the visual identity for the plan. The $5000 includes $2500 prize money and $2500 for use of the artwork.

The winning artwork and shortlisted entries will be displayed at events associated with the launch of the disability employment action plan.

Eligibility

The competition is open to people with disability who are residents of Victoria
